SENIOR CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD-2014

Veterans and Seniors Committee Chairman Legislator Steve Stern is seeking nominees

HUNTINGTON, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Steve Stern (D-Huntington) 16th LD, Chairman of the Veterans and Seniors Committee, is accepting nominations for the “Senior Citizen of the Year Award” from the 16th Legislative District. This prestigious award recognizes contributions of an advocate, role model, leader or volunteer that has enhanced the lives of older residents in Suffolk County. The nominee must be at least 60 years old and not someone who has provided services to senior citizens through government employment. The award will be presented at the Senior Celebration Luncheon sponsored by the Suffolk County Office for the Aging and the Suffolk County Senior Citizens Advisory Board on May 15, 2014.

“Our senior community is active and involved and contributes greatly to our quality of life,” Legislator Stern said. “I encourage my neighbors to nominate seniors who have demonstrated great dedication and commitment to our older neighbors so that they can receive the recognition they so richly deserve.”

Please use the attached form to submit nominees. Nominations must be received no later than Thursday, March 13, 2014.
